Holidays in term time are not permitted and leave will only be authorised in EXCEPTIONAL CIRCUMSTANCES. These circumstances do not include financial savings on holidays, the general attendance pattern of any individual child or the fact that holiday may have already been booked.

If holidays must be taken at certain time because of restrictions on parental leave from work, then this may be deemed exceptional leave, but a letter must be provided from the employer confirming these restrictions.

Where unauthorised leave is taken families may be issued with a penalty notice warning letter from either the school or the Local Authority. Such a warning could later lead to a fixed penalty notice fine of £120 per responsible parent per child (reducing to £60 if paid within 21 days).
